THE STATE.

Tammany was defeated by an average majority for the combination candidates of nearly 20,000, Mr. Cooper's majority for Mayor over Mr. Schell being 19.361; Mr. Phelp's majority for District Attorney over Mr. Smyth, 18,678; Mr. Cowing's majority for City Judge over Mr. Bedford, 17,439; and Mr. Ellinger's majority for Coroner over Mr. Tuomey, 22,604; There will propably be a majority against Tammany in the Board of Aldermen. Mr. Murphy vas elected by 354 majority over Mr. Gunther to succeed the late Mr. Morrissey in the State Senate from the Seventh District. Mr. Bradly, the Democratic candidate for Judge of the Court lutely certain which party has elected the Judge of the Court of Appeals. Both the Republicans and Democrats claim the victory. The Republicans have certainly secured a large majority in the Assembly, making the reelection of Mr. Conkling to the United States Senate certain. They have also gained largely in the Congressional districts. Benj. A. Willis is defeated in the Eleventh District by a very large majority, and the defeat of Anthony Eickhoff in the Seventh, and Fernando Wood in the Ninth District, is claimed by the Republicans. John Hardy, anti-Tammany, is said to have defeated Yood. James O'Brien is elected in the Tenth District by over 2,000 majority. Lawrence R Jerome is badly beaten by Gen. McCook in the General Nov. 5.—James W. Wadsworth, Republican candidate for Assembly in Livingston County, is elected. The county gives about twelve hundred majority for Danforth, Republican candidate for Court of Appents.

General Nov. 5.—A. Reynolds, Republican, in the First Assembly District of Washington County, is elected. The county gives Danforth, for Judge, about two thousand majority.
Seneca Falls, Nov. 5.—David H. Evans, Republican, is elected to Assembly for Seneca County. Vote on candidate for Court of Appeals very close.

County, Vote on candidate for Court of Appeals very close.

B474VIA, Nov. 5.—In Genesee County, eleven towns give Crowley, for Congress, 1,288 majority over Davis: Sanders over Burt, for Member of Assembly, 1,161. Danforth is 1,200 over Brandley, Kingston, Nov. 5.—The election of Mayor Lounsberry by the Democrats of the Flitteenth District is so far assured by the returns received to this hour that the Republicans concede the election, and only dispute the extent of the majority. The returns, so far as available, show that Lounsberry is not receiving the support so cordially extended to Mayham in 1876. Republicans hold that he will not get more than a quarter of the 4.200 majority rolled up for Mayham. Reports indicate that Gen. Nichols has led his teket in Greene county, where he resides. Schoharie is reported as firm for the Democrats. In Ulster and Greene inroads have been made upon both of the old parties by the Greenbackers. The Prohibitionists show no following. The contest in Ulster County has been spirited, but chiefly confined to the politicians. The vote cast is not a full one. The candidates probable enapority of George H. Snarpe to the Assembly districts are claimed by the Democrats for Lorenzo Robinson. Second District, and Leonard Davis. Third. Both parties' candidates claim the County Treasurership. Returns show Hayes, Republican, in advance by over 200. The Democrats elect John C. Bogardus Coroner by a small majority. Two School Commissioners are elected by the Democrats and one by the Republicans. The politicians are excited over the returns from Saugerties. A Democratic majority of 556 last year is changed to-night to 513 Republican.

WATERTOWN. Nov. 5.—C. R. Skinner, Republican candidate for Assembly in the First District, and W. M. Thomson, Democratic candidate for Assembly in the First District, and W. M. Thomson, Democratic candidate for Assembly in the First District, and W. M. Thomson, Democratic candidate for Assembly in the Second District, are elected. The county of Jefferson gives about 1,000 majority for the Republican candidates for papers.

TROY, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Returns from different wards in this city show an unprecedented Greenback vote, which usual Democratic vote polied, has not prevented the election of two-thirds of the regular candidates. Francis Mann. Jr., Republican, is elected by a small majority as member of Assembly from the First District of Rensselaer County, and Perry, Republican, from the Second District, in the Third District probably a small majority as member of Assembly from the First District of Renselaer County, and Perry, Republican, from the Second District, t

But it was a goodnumored multitude, and as considerate as mulitudes ever are. There was a constant struggle within the hall to get nearer to the platform improvised for the speakers. Everybody scented good news, and everybody wanted to be first to hear it. "Is Cooper elected?" was asked twenty thousand times, and when it at length became known that not only Cooper, but prob ably the whole combination ticket had been carried triumphantly, there was a series of wild cheers that was heard in Tammany Hall around the corner, where the braves and their Hall. HARTFORD, Nov. 5 .- Returns from 148 owns give Andrews (Republican), 45,355; Hubbard (Democrat), 43,191; Atwater (Greenback), 7,996; and Baldwin (Prohibitionist), 1,005. It is certain that there is no choice by the people, and the election will go into the Legislature, where the Republicans apparently will have a good working majority on joint ballot—perhaps as high as 35. They have seven of the ten Senatorial districts. P. T. Barnum, Republican, is elected to the Legislature from Bridgeport by 216 majority.

The Republicans elect three of the four Congressmen. Hawley's plurality in the First District is about 1.900. He has 569 plurality in this city. Hartford, for the first time since 1865 elects two Republican representatives to the Legislature. Miles, in the Fourth District, is elected by 1.200, and Wait is reelected in the Third, Phelps, Dem., is reëlected in the Second. the election will go into the Legislature, where

THE RESULT IN BROOKLYN.

Thomas M. Riley Elected Sheriff-Five Republican Assemblymen Elected.

At 12 o'clock last night the returns from all of the county towns in Brooklyn, and from seventeen out of the twenty-five city waris, showed that Thomas M. Riley, the Democratic candidate, had been elected Sheriff. The vote t that hour stood: Riley, 25,861; Worth, 22,204; Kingsland, 3,115. The Democratic Charity Commissioners, C. J. Henry in the First District, and William M. Shipman in the Second District, were elected. There were not enough returns in from the vote for city officers to warrant any prediction as to the vote on Comptroller or Auditor, but the indications at midnight were that Gen. Steinmetz, the Republican candidate, had been elected Comptroller over William Burrell, and that Andrew Cunningham had been elected Auditor.

In the Second Congressional District, Daniel O'Reilly, the Independent Democrat, was elected by a small majority over Edwin C. Litchfield, the regular Democratic candidate. B. B. Chittenden was reëlected in the Third District by a large majority, and A. M. Bliss was reëlected to Congress in the Fourth District.

The Assemblymen whose election is undistiputed are Jonathan Ogden (Rep.), Second District; W. W. Stephenson (Rep.), Ffurth District; W. W. Stephenson (Rep.), Fifth District; Lewis E. Flynn (Dem.), Seventh District; J. H. Douglass (Dem.), Eighth District; and D. W. Tallmadge (Rep.) in the Ninth District; There were not enough figures to indicate the choice in the First District, where J. M. Clancy and Daniel Bradley were in opposition.

The Republicans have elected a majority in the Board of Aldermen. The general result indicated at the hour of this edition was as given above, but there were grave doubts about Steinmetz's election.

Of the seven wards which comprise the Eastern District, all but one, the Fourteenth, is Republican. Yet this ward gave, with the Seventeenth, a majority for Mr. Riley, the Democratic candidate for Sheriff, which offset that for Mr. Worth in his own ward, the Sixteenth, and that of the Nineteenth. The majorities in the Thirteenth, Fifteenth, and Eighteenth, swelled by the Independent Democrates, who is slaughtered their candidate, Mr. Kingsland, sent Mr. Worth over Wallabout by idge with a shout 2,500. In the Seventeenth Ward, Mr. Kingsland's home, Mr. Riley received 106 votes over Worth and 349 over Mr. Kingsland. The Democrats elect Assemblymen in the Seventh and Eighth Districts, Mr. Lewis Stegman, in the Sixth District, is elected by a large majority. The Republicans elect Aldermen in the Thirteenth, Fifteenth, Soventeenth, and Nineteenth Wards. The Democrats elect Supervisors in the Fourteenth (Mr. Hugh McKeever, Ind. Dem.). Sixteenth, and Eighteenth Wards.

trict, Simber J. Bandan, Fourth District, A. C. Harmer, Rep.
In the rest of the State the Republicans elect Ward in the Sixth, Godschalk in the Seventh, Smith in the Minth, Killinger in the Fourteenth, Overton in the Fifteenth, Mitchell in the Sixteenth, Carapbell in the Seventeenth, probably Errett in the Twenty-second, Coyne in the Twenty-second, Coyne in the Twenty-second, I coyne in the Twenty-fourth, White in the Twenty-fifth Dick in the Twenty-sixth, and Osmer in the Twenty-seventh.

The Democrats elect Clymer in the Eighth, Bachman in the Tenth, Wright in the Tweltth, Ryon in the Thirteenth, Stenger in the Eighteenth; probably Beltzhover in the Nineteenth, Curtin in the Twenty-first, leaving the Eleventh District to hear from.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

CONCORD, Nov. 5 .- The Legislature will e Republican by a majority of thirty-three. thus securing the election of a Republican to the United States Senate. Natt Head, Rep., is elected Governor by a somewhat reduced macleeted Governor by a solid small—only 1,957 in jority.

The Greenback vote was small—only 1,957 in one hundred towns. They will probably have three members of the Legislature.

From returns now in it is supposed that the Democrats have lost the First District, owing to the Greenback candidate in the field; and the Republicans therefore send a solid delegation to Congress.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—Despatches from Virginia City, Nevada, say that the Chairman of the Democratic State Committee claims that the Democratic legislative ticket is ahead in that State. There has been much scratching.

ST. ALBANS, Nov. 5.- The failure to elect a Congressman in the Third District made a new election pecessery. The same candidates as in September were in the field and Bradley, Barlow, Greenback, received to-day a plurality over his Republican and Democratic competitors, so far as heard from, of some 4,000 votes. The towns to hear from, based on the September election, will not materially change this result.

RHODE ISLAND.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 5 .- Latimer W. Ballou (Rep.) is reflected to Congress in the Second District by about 700 majority over Bar-Second District by about 700 majority over Barnaby (Dem.) and Smith (Greenback).

Nelson W. Aldrich (Rep.) is elected in the First District by about 3.800 majority over Davis (Dem.) and Sayles (Greenback).

The Journal has returns from the entire State except Block Island. In the First District Nelson W. Aldrich (Rep.) has 5.910; Davis (Dem.) 1.324; Sayles (Greenback), 606; scattering, 104. Aldrich's majority, 3.875.

In the Second District, Latimer, W. Ballou (Rep.) has 5.69; Barnaby (Dem.). 4.535; Smith (Greenback), 311; scattering.

Ballou's majority, 708.

RICHMOND, Nov. 5 .- The vote polled to-day falls far below that registered, doubtless due to the fact that payment of a capitation tax was the fact that payment of a capitation tax was required before voting. The Democrats, so far as heard from, will return certainly eight out of the nine Congressmen, and perhaps may defeat Jorgensen (Rep.) in the Fourth. In this district Gen. Joseph E. Johnson will have a majority of about 1,000 over Nawman (Greenback) and Royal (Ind.) In the Second District Goode is reflected by about 1,000 majority. In the Seventh Epp Hunter is reflected by an overwhelming majority.

NORTH CAROLINA.

RALEIGH, Nov. 5 .- Returns will be slow in oming in, but the Democrats will return seven out of the eight Congressmen, and in the Secont District, although it is strongly Republican, a quarrel between the two negro candidates may elect a Democrat, and give the party a solid delegation. Waddell is reflected in the Third District.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 5 .- Hampton is, on course, reflected Governor, having no opposicourse, reélected Governor, having no opposi-tion. Returns to-night lead to the confi-dent belief that the State returns a soli-Democratic delegation to Congress. Till-man's majority for Congress in the Firh District over Smalls, colored, is estimated at 7,000. The returns indicate that Richardson beats Ralney, colored Republican, in the First District. In the Second, which includes Charleston, the vote is heavy, and the contest close. O'Conner is probably elected over Mac-key, Republican, by a small majority. The election was quiet and orderly throughout the State.

GEORGIA.

SAVANNAH, Nov. 5 .- The nine Congressional Districts will all return Democrats. alsional Districts will all return Democratt. although in one, or perhaps two, districts, the regular nominee will be beaten by an "Independent Democrat." This is probably the case in the Fourth District, where H. R. Harris, the present member, is beaten by Persons, who had the support of the Greenbackers. Alex. H. Stephens had no opposition worth speaking of. The contest in the Seventh District was close between Lester, Reg. Dem., and Felton, Ind. Dem. (the present incumbent), but Lester is probably elected.

ALABAMA.

MOBILE, Nov. 5 .- The Republicans made no nominations for Congress this year, but is five out of the eight districts the Greenbacker five out of the eight districts the Greenbackers or Independents had candidates. From indications now at hand, however, it appears that in seven out of the eight districts the regular Democrats are returned. In the Montgomery district, where it was feared there would be a close contest, the Hon. Hilary A. Herbert is reelected by a handsome majority. Lowe. Independent, defeats Garth, Dem., in the Eighth District. Lowe is a pronounced Greenbacker, and is said to be pledged not to go into the Democratic caucus at Washington. In the Fourth District Shelley, Dem., defeats Jere Haralson (colored) by ever 2,000 votes. Gen. Thomas N. Herndon is undoubtedly elected in this district over Warner Bailey, Greenback.

FLORIDA.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 5.—Special despatches to the Morning News from Florida indicate the election of Noble A. Hull and R. H. M. Davidson, both Democrats, to Congress.

MISSOURI.

be Democratic by a heavy majority, thus seems ing the election of two Democrats to the United States Senate, one to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Lewis S. Bogy, and one for the term beginning next March. The contest in the First Second, and Third Districts, row all Republican, will be closer than was expected. The other ten districts will go Democratic.

KENTUCKY.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 5 .- Kentucky will return a Democratic delegation to Congress intact. In this, the Fifth, and only doubtful district, Willis (Dem.) is reflected by a plurality of between 2,000 and 3,000 over Kearny (a son of Gen. Phil Kearney). Scott (Rep.) and Blanton Duncan (National). The latter's total vote will hardly reach 200. Blackburn is reflected in the Seventh District by 8,000 majority.

TENNESSEE,

NASHVILLE, Nov. 5 .- Marks, Dem., is elected Governor, although the vote polled was the lightest for years. The Republicans have certainly held their own in the First and probably in the Second Congressional Districts. The Democrats elect the other eight members.

ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5 .- Despatches received from the interior of the State up to this hour, 10 o'clock, indicate that the Republicans have o'clock, indicate that the Republicans have elected their candidate for State Treasurer by a majority which may be stated roughly at ten thousand. The actual count will probably fall under this figure. This was the only important home office to be filled, and may be taken as a test of the party strength in a popular election. It is much too early now to say what members of Congress have been chosen. Enough is known to show how closely the Illinois delegation will be divided. Of the nineteen districts in the State nine are believed to have elected Democrats, and the Republicans ten, thus losing one member. Morrison, Townshend, Springer, and Sparks, the old members and Democrats, are returned by handsome majorities. Of the newer men, Gen. Singleton (Dem.) of Quincy, has the largest majority, appearances indicating that he has not less than 4,000.

Returns as to the Legislature are very meagre, The indications are that the Senate will be almost evenly divided between the Democrats and Republicans, and that the majority of either party in the Lower House will not exceed half a dozen. The National party, which a month ago had made itself feared by both the older parties, seems in the mean time to have been somehow wrecked, for its promised balance of power in joint ballot of not less than thirty or forty members does not appear. If the Nationals have elected five or six representatives, they have done well. It is, at this writing, doubtful whether they have, they will hold the balance of power in the choice of a United States Senator to succeed Oglesby. nothing is in from the city, the figures being held back. If the indications on local candimajority which may be stated roughly at ten
